1. From the MMSD homepage, select [Library Catalogs].

2. Choose your school.
3. Select the Library Portal.

5. If you know the title or author or subject of the book you would like to search, you can search from this page, selecting Author, Title or Subject. You can also click on the icon at the top of the search box to go directly to TeachingBooks.net.

6. The TeachingBooks.net homepage is organized for maximum access. The search box is at the top with a toolbar for narrow your search.
7. The Special Collections are of special interest for Curricular Uses and Common Core State Standards.

8. The four instructional shifts are found at the bottom of the page. Grade levels are on the left sidebar.
9. From the grade band page, choose an area to narrow your search.

10. Select a title to view instructional materials.
11. Click View Text Complexity Results to view quantitative and qualitative text complexity measures.

12. TeachingBooks.net resources can also be searched using the online library catalog by clicking on the One Search tab.
13. Click Show to list resources from TeachingBooks.net.

14. Click on the title, author, grade level, curricular area, or genre for more information.
15. To email or share the page, click the links at the bottom of any page.